An Unlikely Gun Hand R.B. Tetro

As a young man, despite being woefully undersized, Jessie Jacobs vowed that he would someday wear the badge of a law man and live the way of the gun. With the patient help of the man who raised him, he's become the most feared gunfighter in the territory; the fastest of the fastest, a walking talking, living legend of law and order. But his obsession with justice has come at too high of a price, a price he's no longer willing to pay. He longs to lay down the gun and the badge and simply return home; back to his waiting family and the peaceful, busted knuckled life of a ranch hand. But fate has other plans. It keeps drawing him back... into the violent life... the life he's destined to live...the life, of an unlikely gun hand.
