The grace of God is a central theme throughout scripture. For years we have looked at the grace of God as "God's Unmerited Favor." This definition has merit, but have you ever truly thought about how does this definition "apply" to my everyday life. This book goes over some basic truths about grace that will help you get a deeper understanding of how God operates with in the heart. Once we apply some of these basic truth to our hearts. We will begin to truly see the power of grace beyond our conversion experience. That power will transform the individual, bring hope to others, and glorify God.
