Grace Through Insanity Andrette R. Chapman

The courage to be transparent and tell your truth isn't cathartic for selfish gain. But rather, it cleans the cloudy vision pain, hurt, fear and failure cause, to gleam perspective, direction, and wisdom that benefit others stranded along the wayside of their own personal process. This fascinating literary hodgepodge offers an almost rhythmic journey of relational issues of which so many can identify. Even for those who cannot personally relate, "Grace Through Insanity" will surely entangle the imagination of any reader as the trials and triumphs of this familiar women play out through its poetic and theatric words. Andrette Chapman's brutal honesty and willingness to share her story is refreshing and needed in this time where ineffective self-help fluff abounds. She is truly and inspiration.

"This book is RAW, Real and full of the unspoken! The honesty written here is for healing the broken-hearted! I love it!"

Danielle A. Owens,

Founder of It's Her Time

"Grace Through Insanity is the debut collection of poems by Andrette Chapman, a young, talented and spiritual soul whose style is genuine, true-to-life and conversational, which gives the poems an honest, transparent and relational feel. Her themes of love, hurt, redemption and forgiveness not only support the freedom of vulnerability, but they tap into a unique perspective based on a real, spiritual foundation. Ms. Chapman is definitely destined to be one of our next greatest poets,"
