The Power of Our Love (Volume 1) Quanna LaShae

Zay and Chyna fall in love instantly and are on the road to being a power couple in this story when opposites attract. Chyna is a damaged, young teenage girl who gets taken in by her devout Cristian aunt after her mother's untimely death. Chyna is not the average girl her age. She is very smart and has plans, goals, and the best thing yet; she is still a virgin and has no plans of giving it away until she is married. She runs into Zay, one of the most notorious street bosses in Georgia, and her life totally changes. She finds herself doing things she never thought she would do, and living the dream of being put on a pedestal. Chyna struggles with adapting to the street life, but still tries to be a rider for Zay because she is in love with him. Early on in the blossoming relationship Chyna runs into problems that come with being with a street boss that has her second guessing if this is the life for her. On the other hand, Zay is struggling with things like loyalty, snakes and average things the life comes with, but he has never been in love before Chyna so he struggles to do right by his home life as well as his street life. Things seem all too well when past secrets and new secrets threaten to break the pair apart. Everything done in the dark comes to light, and death, love, and broken hearts are amidst. Can this couple beat the odds of a drama filled relationship, or will they end up turning on each other like the streets expect and everything fall apart?
