You know how Christmas soon approaches and before you know it there is so much to do? You have a large quantity of cards to post to family, friends, business contacts and work colleagues but it can be frustrating to keep track of all the cards you send, and especially cards that you receive at the last minute? It would be useful to have a record of all the cards you sent over 2 years so that you can add to or delete from your compiled list, to carry forward into the following year?

This alphabetical Christmas card register will enable you to recall who you intend to send cards to in the near future. With this beautifully decorated 8" x 10", two year register you can record: the year, name, address, post code, cards received and sent.
