Seven year old Joey crosses the dream line to live his adulthood simultaneously, and falls for the second dancing movie star in as many months. He's seven on one side and thirty on the other. Which of those two brains will win out? Which of those realities will prove to be the most real? Last time it was Rita Hayworth. This time, it's no less than the most prodigious tap dancer of the era, Eleanor Powell. It's further tongue-in-cheek proof that what we make up can wake up, and we all risk the consequences of getting what we ask for.
