Skyla McNeil is young, beautiful, and living it up in the city of Atlanta. She is at the top of her game and living without a care in the world until she gets the one phone call she has been dreading her whole adult life. We've all heard the saying "what happens in this house stays in this house" but the McNeil family takes this saying to a whole new level. Lies are always uncovered and choices must be made. What will Skyla do when the past she has been running from finally catches up with her.
