Kelsey Matthews was told at age thirteen that her true love would find her. Her soul was bound to his through time. Now an adult she is beginning to question her faith in the carnival psychic's prediction. Her fear that the future might not be as clear as she had been once told is calmed when a more reputable psychic tells her he is coming and she will know in an instant that it is him. Then on one fateful trip cross town on the subway proves the psychics were right. She sees him. She knows it's him. The only problem is that her train is pulling away from the platform he is standing on. Now Kelsey roams the city every chance she gets looking for a man she doesn't even know.
