Denmark (Our Lives, Our World)

Denmark (Our Lives, Our World)

An intimate and engaging portrait of the lives of children from around the world. Covering all continents, this series observes children in their everyday setting; where they live, what they eat, and how they spend their days. We are introduced to their families and friends and given insights into their lives and aspirations. Photographed by students from the local area, the images take us one step closer to the real lives of four children from each featured country.
