After experiencing one bad relationship after another, Sydney Clark has taken the attitude that there is definitely an expiration date on a relationship with a man. That is until she is reacquainted with Rod Greenwood, a former coworker, who believes that relationships take people to a place called heartache and pain. At the time, Sydney was in a relationship when she first met Rod, but their attraction was always there, and now they have a second chance. But what type of relationship can two people who don't believe in relationships have? How long will it take before one wants more than the other is willing to give?
