During the first two days of June, 1941 - which was the days of Shavuot, one of the major Jewish holidays, - Iraqi nationalists and Palestinian Arabs, headed by Hajj Amin al-Husayni, Jerusalem Mufti have staged bloody pogrom of unarmed, civilian Jewish community in Iraq. The massacre resulted in 145 victims, thousands of injured, and hundreds of children and women raped. It played a major role in speeding up the destruction of the oldest Jewish community outside of Eretz Israel. The Al-Farhud consists of papers on the pogrom and events leading up to it (some originally published in English and others written in Hebrew and appearing now in English for the first time); the book make public previously unknown documents which vividly document Palestinian Arabs as Nazi collaborators long before they metamorphosed into permanent "refugees."
