Victoria's Most Haunted: 30 Ghost Stories from BC's Historic Capital City Ian Gibbs

Quaint, charming Victoria is world renowned for its seaside attractions, flourishing gardens, and breathtaking ocean views. But looming behind its picture-perfect façade is a city shrouded in darkness, with restless, disembodied beings that whisper ghastly tales of mystery, violence, and horror.

Known as British Columbia's most haunted city, Victoria is teeming with a plethora of spirits. Through this brand-new collection of disturbing tales, you'll come face to face with:

The Grey Lady who chills hotel guests to the bone

A decorous World War I soldier who protects tenants from something sinister

An inconsolable child who haunts the pool area of a defunct hotel

The blood-soaked spectre who runs through the infamous Fan Tan Alley to escape capture

The eternal prisoner whose quiet laughter mocks his cell mates

The ghost of Robert Johnson, who perpetually reenacts his suicide

The phantom of a cranky hermit who plagues a beautiful lake house

A trickster who shoves inebriated pub patrons down the stairs

And a spinster who gives tours of her childhood home

And many more

Ian Gibbs is a Ghostly Walks guide in Victoria, and he has compiled the stories of Victoria's best-known hauntings along with some you may have not heard before.
