The past always has a way to make people want to seek vengeance, when they are hurt. After the death of Quan, everything changed. Trying to go back to living normal was a hard task for everyone, especially when the person who killed Quan is still alive. The guys' main mission is finding and taking out Quan's killer before he comes for them. As the men are focusing on their own task, the ladies are trying to hold the families down as they have their men backs. Meanwhile, Quan's killer is watching their every move, plotting. He knows he has the upper hand and uses it to his advantage. With a strong motive, he has no intentions of letting anyone get in his way. "There is nothing like sweet revenge!" But who is doing the seeking in Falling For a Drug Dealer 4: Revenge?
