Upon God's creation, how many African American women have opened their hearts to love a man, and gradually become to love that man more than themselves? What does one do on this earth when your chocolate lover betrays you for another woman? Tight to The Death is a book about Alicia Montana. She is a beautiful woman that loses herself so deeply that she develops an inner personality that metamorphoses itself within. After all the hurt and betrayal from her baby daddy, Alicia soon starts to conquer her psychological blows to fix her attention on raising her daughter Tisha. While her dominated other, still living in a state of amok, decides to play the game of revenge. Following the murder, brutality, manipulation, drugs and men you decide which deadly pothole Alicia stumbled into that lands her in the state penitentiary.
