Crashing the Game (The Hidden Level Trifecta) (Volume 3) A. J. Bakke

Now that he's settled on a world where video games don't exist, 17-year-old Brandon thinks his gaming days are over. Not a bad thing. Life on a farm is simple and straightforward. Most importantly, he is free of his abusive father and living with a family who dotes on and encourages him. His life has taken a huge u-turn for the better. His shattered spirit is slowly healing, his confidence gradually blooming. But his old escape from reality catches up to him on an epic scale. So does his dangerous and vindictive father. Can he and his friends deliver the Blue Screen of Death to an entire dimension as well as keep Brandon safe from being dragged back into a life of terror and pain?
