Encyclopedia of Colonial and Revolutionary America

Encyclopedia of Colonial and Revolutionary America

Spanning the entire colonial period - from the earliest settlements of the 16th century to the 1783 Treaty of Paris, which concluded the American Revolution - this reference work contains 1500 alphabetical entries. The ideas, events, people and developments which defined the birth of the United States have been brought together in a volume which emphasizes key discoveries, battles and trends which shaped the era. Fully illustrated, the text also discusses the cultural, social and economic aspects of everyday life in the American colonies.
