Ellis Island: Immigration's Shining Center (NJ) (Making of America) John T. Cunningham

More than 17 million immigrants came here to the front door of America from 1890 to 1915 in what has been called the largest mass migration in human history. In the shadow of the Statue of Liberty, Ellis Island is one of the nation's most important historical sites and is one of our most heavily visited national monuments. Its story is the story of our people and their struggles for freedom and dreams of a better life.
