A young girl from a small town in Germany is so sick of home and the predictability of her life that she decides to check out early. As she lays on the railroad tracks waiting for the Regional Express she meets a woman with the same plan but for the opposite problem. The woman has lived in America for thirty years and is tired of being homesick. Both are about to give up the quest for their treasures, because both feel discouraged by the big “But, what if. ”
