Conceived: Encouragement and Hope for Young Single Moms Jennifer Litke

Jennifer is a wife and mother living in the small rural community of Picton, ON. She and her husband were married almost right away after high school, and soon after they began building their family. Jennifer is the mother of three sons and life for their family is very busy. Jennifer's heart is to see broken lives renewed by the working power of Jesus Christ. Through her own experiences of making poor choices and living in brokenness, she longs to share how Jesus' grace and mercy transformed her life. Facing the challenges that every young person faces on a daily basis, plus the looming future on the horizon can be difficult for any teenager. But add in the extra pressure of raising a baby and any young girl would be overwhelmed. Young women today are facing huge obstacles. An unplanned pregnancy can deter future plans for college, relationships, or career paths. There is hope and strength for young women who are feeling like they have nowhere to turn. That hope is found in Jesus. This book is designed to help and encourage young women facing extraordinary circumstances with spiritual insight and practical wisdom. "Jennifer Litke speaks from a heart that is tender and experienced. This devotional lacks all the lecturing and judgement usually dished out liberally to young, single mothers and instead offers encouragement, understanding, love and a perspective right from the heart of God." -Kevin Stenhouse, UCB Canada
