Frankie Frog's Small Problem Mary Michelle Morse

Frankie Frog's Small Problem is about a frog who is feeling down because of his size. Frankie Frog is a normal frog, except for one thing: he is really small. He doesn't fit into the normal routines of life. As he sits and wonders how he'll ever be able to do something great, an opportunity arises. Kiki Frog needs his help. She lost something very special. Frankie leaps to her rescue. He fits into a small space and returns with Kiki's special item. Kiki Frog thanks him. When she leaves, Frankie Frog realizes that his size might have seemed like a serious problem to him, but that actually his size was really special. If it weren't for Frankie's small size, he never could have helped Kiki. He is left with a wonderful feeling of accomplishment. He was small, and yet he was the only one who could help Kiki. Frankie Frog did something great, and he felt happy!
