A French Connection Ruth Kipnis

Can an attraction develop into anything more given a twenty year age difference, religious conflicts, and family objections?

A well to do widowed business man nearing retirement meets a French widow twenty years his junior. Their business arrangement becomes something more than casual. The differences in age, religion and family present many ups and downs to a developing romance. A trip to Paris to meet her family sets them on a rocky road to marriage. Will it ever happen with all the twists and turns in their relationship? Will they live happily ever after or part because of unresolved differences?

About the Author - A French Connection is Ruth's newest book, and it is a departure from her years of experience in the Thoroughbred racing industry. Ruth has previously published her debut novel Lane's End. Ruth is a California native and now currently lives on a horse farm in Aiken, South Carolina.
