Life's tough for Melody Bittersweet. She's single, addicted to sugar and super heroes, her family are officially bonkers, and she sees dead people. Is it any wonder no-one's swiping right on Tinder? Waking up lonely on her twenty seventh birthday, Melody finally snaps. She can't carry on basing all of her life decisions on the advice of her magic 8 ball; things have got to change. Fast forward two months, and she's now the proud proprietor of her very own ghostbusting agency - kind of like in the movies but without the dodgy white jumpsuits. She's also flirting with her ex Leo Dark, fraternising with her enemy in alleyways, and she's somehow ended up with a pug called Lestat. Life just went from dull to dynamite and it's showing no sign of slowing up anytime soon. Melody's been hired to clear Scarborough House of its incumbent ghosts, and now it seems like there's the small matter of a murder to solve too... Welcome to Chapelwick, home of the brand new and hilarious Girls Ghostbusting Agency series, where things really do go bump in the night.
