"Look Grandma and Grandpa! I'm in a Book!"

It's always fun visiting our grandparents. With this book your grandchild can read the story then illustrate each blank page below this fun and poetic book as they go.

Once your child has finished reading and filled in the blank pages with his / her illustrations, they can take a black permanent marker and write their name on the cover as the illustrator of the book.

Never lose another picture your grandchild draws for you. Put the book on the shelf and keep their wonderful creations forever.

Show off your grandchild's book drawn by them with friends and family.
