Cats of Myth: Tales From Around the World Loretta Hausman

Cats have been worshiped and honored by human beings since ancient times. Here are nine stories that pay homage to the mysterious, magical, nine-lived cat, who has faithfully guided and protected us through the ages.

In these pages, you'll meet the tabby who, in the time of beginnings, decided that a human hearth was the proper place for a cat. You'll discover a Japanese bobtail who uses her cunning and martial arts skills to protect a master swordsman from an uppity rat. And you'll find a Siamese who helps her owner defeat a monster and win the hand of a princess.

These stories come from a wide variety of cultures around the world, ranging from ancient Egypt to the Polynesian islands of the Pacific to the German-Swiss Alps. The Hausmans' storytelling style varies to complement each culture, but their infallible ear makes each tale an irresistible read-aloud. And Leslie Baker's delicate watercolors beautifully capture the features of many different breeds. Cats of Myth is a thoroughly enjoyable tribute to our most clever companion, the mystical cat.
