Hardcover in box:

designwajskol an extensive range of projects created by the firm of the Italian-born designer Jonathan Wajskol over the last twenty-five years.

The result is a visually driven experience that emphasizes a consistent design approach across all categories of design. The work ranges from editorial design to identities, way-finding, product design, interactive design and info graphics. The book highlights 50 projects and spans three continents: North America, Europe, and Asia. A collection of essays by notable design historians, educators and theorists, among them design-legend Massimo Vignelli, situates the work of designwajskol within the modernist tradition.
