Two crocodiles, Victor and Al have one wish: to buy some video games and play with them during rainy afternoons. After counting the savings in their money-boxes, they arrive at the local shopping centre on their bikes ... only to find that they don't have enough money to buy their favourite games. In this beautifully illustrated story, the two amusing friends go on an adventure during which they discuss money, price and profit in simple everyday language that can be understood by everyone. Let's follow them!
