What Is A Selfish Baby Mama? Abylss Gillespie, Onney

When it comes to raising children, the word “Selfish” is expressed and understood differently between some mothers and fathers. The fathers and children interviewed throughout this book have expressed their concerns in regards to the selfish manner in which the “Baby Mama” handles situations; via consciously or unconsciously. As you are reading the stories embedded in these pages, our goal is to bring awareness and understanding to family situations in hopes to promote conducive communication between both custodial and non-custodial parents.
