LIKE AN ANIMAL: When Being Human Is Not Enough Jane M. Broccolo

"Never doubt your wings." - Bald Eagle. This controversial and bold little book gives voice to the spirits of the air, of the earth, and of the water - with the passion of fire. And it gives voice to our own animal spirit as an antidote to fear, confusion, disconnect, and poor health. This book will disturb you, mystify you, melt you, and energize you, as well as charm you with a few tales about a dog who knows how to make dreams come true. Empathy, telepathy, compassion, knowing the future, holding a vision and making it real are not human traits, but abilities all animals have...at least all mammals. It takes our animal nature to realize these qualities within ourselves. This book very simply reveals why the most spiritual aspect of being human is being an animal. Jane's sharing of her animal experiences shifts us from oppressors to co-creators with the animal pack lifting life on earth from the shadow of extinction.
