What does the Koran really teach about the issues of our day? About society, the place of women, injustice, violence, other religions, freedom of conscience, freedom of beliefs and speech, homosexuality, punishment, hell, heaven, and its scientific assertions. Does it have anything to say about Terrorism, Holy War/Jihad, beheading, vengeance, peace in the world, hatred of Jews, Christians, other Religionists, and secularists or unbelievers in any religion? What bearing does its teachings have upon the current ongoing Middle East conflicts? Is Islam actually a “Religion of Peace” as we are being told by the media and politicians? Convinced many, if not most citizens will simply not study the whole Koran for themselves, the author provides here a representative sampling, a topical selection of its teaching based on authoritative sources and in modern English. A MUST READ for every English speaking concerned citizen, whether Christian, Jewish, Buddhist, Hindu, Muslim, Atheist, Agnostic, Native Religionists, Pagan or Secularist. “Highly readable, succinct and to the point for busy people in all walks of life.”
